Alara Reborn Pre-Release Tournament April 25!

"The birth of one world.

The death of five."

Join us for Alara Reborn Pre-Release Tournaments on Saturday, April 25, at Gamerz. We had over 50 players for our Conflux Pre-Release in February, so this sealed deck tournament promises to be a don't-miss event.

Sign ups begin at 10 am for the 11 am tournament and 1 pm for the 2:30 tournament. Participation is limited, so get there early.

We will run 8-man single elimination events after, until we run out of product!

Alara Reborn will follow WOTC's new publishing standards set for the Shards release. That is, mythic rares will be included in one out of every eight packs. Intro packs will contain 41 cards and one booster pack, and will replace preconstructed theme decks.

It has been implicitly revealed (by unveiling the set's first card) that the set will contain no traditional mono-colored cards.

Heroscape Tournament

Gamerz is hosting a Heroscape Tournament, April 4, at noon. Registration will begin at 11:00 am.

Bring your 500 point army. No customs or Marvelscape, but repaints are allowed.

Registered players will also need to bring a prize for the prize table. Players will get to pick a prize from the table, according to their ranking (highest to lowest).

For more information and a list of maps that will be utilized, visit the website at <http://www.heroscapers.com/community/showthread.php?t=23599>.

May Day 4 Hunger

Gamerz is teaming up with Who's Yer Gamers to sponsor May Day 4 Hunger, a charity game day to help Gleaners Food Bank, a local Indianapolis organization dedicated to helping feed those in need.

Who's Yer Gamers will be running multiple tables of RPGs, Boardgames, and TCGs all day at Gamerz. Bring your canned food donation for this worthwhile event.
